FOOTBALL 365 DAYS A YEAR

The AP Top Ten for 2025, Six Months in Advance. 95.3% over 15 years!

Spring football has already begun for some teams and every year in late February, I put out my Projected AP Top 10 basically six months ahead of the AP Top Ten release!

It is important to make the point that this is NOT my preseason Top 10 for next season, rather what I am projecting the Preseason AP Top 10 will look like to start the season.

My predicted Preseason AP Top 10 has been a PERFECT 10 for 10 in EIGHT of the 16 years that I have put it out! When I predict the AP Top 10 in February (about a HALF YEAR ahead of the actual AP poll), I have now hit on 152 out of 160 over the last 15 years! That means hitting all 10 teams in eight of the sixteen years and missing by just one team in the other eight years. Once again, predicting the top ten teams in the AP poll SIX MONTHS in advance, the record is now 152 out of 160 or 95%!

Last year was one of those years where I missed by one. Last year I had the top 9 teams correct. For #10 I went with Missouri. The Tigers had a lot coming back and a very manageable schedule. The Tigers just missed the top 10 coming in at #11 in the AP Poll. The AP voters went with Florida State at #10 and the Seminoles did not live up to that lofty ranking going just 2-10 on the year. Missouri won their bowl game and finished 10-3.

This week I am starting the second write through process for each team. We have been working full tilt on the magazine since the end of November and are only half-way thru the exhaustive process. The second write thru process lasts about a month and a half. Once spring practices have ended, the third write through process begins which involves me talking to 125+ coaches spending about an hour with each going over their teams with them. We will send the last page to the press on June 6th. Last year we started shipping them out almost as soon as the finished product rolled off the press (about 10 days later). I would estimate we will begin shipping the magazine out to all VIP members around June 16th this year.

I know many of you order the magazine in advance so that you can be the FIRST in the country to receive one. When you sign up for the VIP deal you will receive your magazine well before it hits Barnes and Nobles on July 4th.

When you purchase the VIP deal you get the magazine before it hits the bookstores, the digital magazine for FREE, 4 weeks of my Inside the Pressbox newsletter for FREE, and my FCS magazine for FREE and 4 Free months of Phil Steele Plus. That is over $200 worth of football info for just $39.95 right now. CLICK HERE FOR DETAILS.

VIP members get the magazine before anyone else, and they are mailed on the FIFO basis so the first to sign up for the offer get the magazine shipped first. We are still on DAY ONE shipments if you sign up right now. CLICK HERE TO ORDER. If you wait, you may get day TWO or day 3 and in future months the price will go up and the bonus offers will decrease so the deal is the best right now. As mentioned, we mail the middle of June, two day express so you will have it weeks before it hits the nation's #1 Book Store Barnes and Noble on July 4th!

The VIP digital bonus was even better than expected last year as all VIP members had access to the magazine two days after we sent it to the press and were reading it for a full week before it was even printed (3 weeks before it hit the newsstand). Also, we did not open access to the digital magazine to anyone but VIP members for a full week after that! All VIP members had two full weeks of EXCLUSIVE ACCESS to the digital version!

The VIP DEAL gets you FOUR free issues of my Inside the Pressbox Newsletter which sells for $20 per issue. The newsletter gives you my personal analysis of every game for the weekend and supplies you with my computer's forecast for each game projecting each team's rush yards, pass yards and points. It comes with 4 Free College Issues, but you can call the office and change that to 2 Free College and two Free NFL if you like. Last year the four free issues went 16-9 on the Best Bets!

The VIP DEAL also will get you my 2024 Phil Steele FCS magazine (digital only) FREE and this is a $25 value! Last year there were 118 games between FCS and FBS teams and you can become an instant expert on all 128 FCS teams getting the magazine in much the same format as the FBS magazine. Keep in mind most states have legalized gambling, and they post numbers on FCS vs FCS games, and you will have remarkable line value on these games being an expert while the majority of folks know very little about the FCS teams.

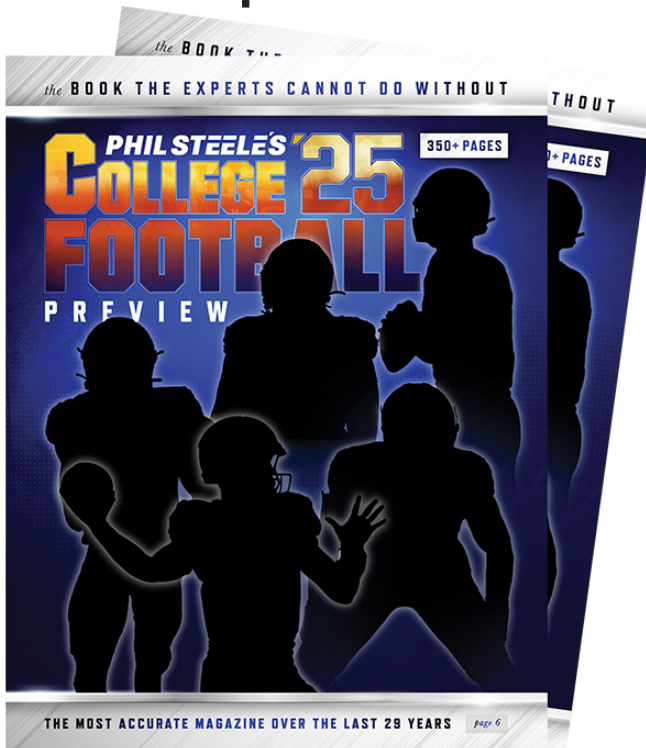

This year I have added a SUPER VIP deal. The price is just $30 more or basically the cost of one magazine mailed to you. In the SUPER VIP you get TWO magazines and access to Phil Steele Plus ($99) for a FULL year thru the Super Bowl! If you are thinking of subscribing to Phil Steele Plus again for 2024, just get the SUPER VIP deal and save $30 plus get two magazines and all the other bonuses. I may stop this offer soon. To get the SUPER VIP membership

Here are the ten teams I feel will be in the 2025 AP Preseason Top Ten and over the last fifteen years 152 of my 160 (95%) Projected top ten teams in February made the actual top ten, so as I said earlier, I seem to have a pretty good feel for how the voters will rank these teams come August.

WHO PLAYS THE NCAA'S TOUGHEST 2025 SCHEDULE

There are many ways to calculate schedule strength. The most used method is to combine opponents' records from the previous season. Using this metric the toughest 2025 schedule belongs to Arkansas, whose opponents won 66.7% of their games in 2024. Kentucky (65.0%) comes in at #2, Miss St & Wisconsin (64.8%) is number three. You can see by using this measurement Northern Illinois (39.3%), Jax St (41.5%) and San Jose St (42.1%) have the easiest schedules for 2025 based on using 2024's final records for opponent strength.

I want to remind you that this is the NCAA's method, not mine. My schedule strength is based on my 9 sets of power ratings for THIS years' teams and not last years. Prior to 2019, the method used for this article said that Arizona St was facing the 113th most challenging schedule (17th easiest) as their opponents won only 45.3% of their games in 2018. I had Arizona St 64 spots higher in my strength of schedule rankings in the magazine and 7 of 12 of their opponents went on to play in bowl games, they faced four ranked teams and ended up taking on the 44th toughest schedule. It is clear that there were not 112 schedules tougher than Arizona State's. In last year's magazine I pointed out that Kansas had on of the most underrated schedules in the country. They ranked just #125 in opponents win % which was the 10th easiest schedule. I had them rated taking on a schedule 66 spots tougher. When the dust cleared Kansas took on 10 bowl teams last year with 10 of their foes P4 teams and Kansas one of the preseason favorites in the Big 12 did not make a bowl.

There are other ways to measure schedule strength. Who plays the most teams that had a winning record last year? Well, that method came up with four teams at the top. #1 on that list are Kentucky, Miss St, Syracuse and LSU which each play 10 teams that had winning records in 2024. There are five teams that face 9 teams that had a winning record last year in Arkansas, Wisconsin, Oklahoma, Auburn and Notre Dame. At the opposite end of the spectrum San Jose St faces just two teams that had a winning record last year and Michigan, Texas Tech and Northern Illinois face just three teams that had a winning record last year.

Another way to measure schedule strength is to see how many opponents made the post season the previous year. Two teams draw ELEVEN opponents that qualified for the postseason last year and they are Syracuse and LSU. Seven teams face TEN opponents that qualified for the postseason last year and they are Miss St, Wisconsin, Auburn, Notre Dame, TCU, South Carolina and Louisville. The teams at the other end are San Jose St which faces just 3 teams that were in bowls.

Another way to look at schedule strength would be how many opponents that finished in the Top 25 the previous year does a team face? In 2021 Florida St, Georgia Tech, Nebraska, Purdue, Kansas, and Baylor all led the way with five games vs teams that finished in the Top 25 in 2020 and only ONE of the six teams managed to have a winning record in 2021 (Baylor)! In 2022 six teams faced five teams that finished 2021 ranked. Those six teams were Mississippi State, Texas Tech, Syracuse, Vanderbilt, BYU, and Louisville. Those six, fared better with 5 making it to a bowl. In '23 there were six teams who faced SIX teams that that finished ranked in 2022. Those six teams with rugged schedules were Arizona, Arizona St, California, Colorado, Florida and Stanford. Arizona had great success and Cal managed to get to a bowl but the other 4 teams all missed out on a bowl. Last year 4 teams faced 6 teams that finished 2024 ranked and those four teams were Arkansas, Florida, Oklahoma and South Carolina. Oklahoma had a losing season but the other 3 teams all managed to get to a bowl with South Carolina finishing ranked. This year three teams face six teams that finished ranked last year and they are Miss St, Arkansas and Oklahoma. The Hogs and Sooners did not get many breaks the first two years of this new 16 team SEC schedule!

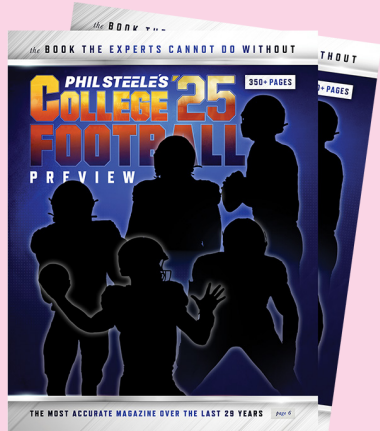

Interestingly there are 22 teams that do not face a single foe that finished ranked last year including James Madison which is #44 using the method of opponent's records for 2024.
